Dear Ms. Horn,

I am in receipt of your letter stating I was eighteen (18) days late in filing the 10p form, which was due October 26, 2020. I filed this form with all required financial information by fax on October 26, 2020. My Wi-fi went down and could not be fixed on October 26, 2020, which was the deadline to file the form. I contacted the Campaign Finance Office and spoke with someone, I believe a male, who stated that if I could not access the site through the internet, I could fax as I did not want to miss the deadline. I did not get a name, but I have no reason to provide false information on this matter. The Campaign Finance Office did receive my fax filing and when I was notified as to the need to electronically file said form, I did so immediately. None of the financial information was changed.

It is also now my understanding that the fines assessed in 2018 and which were suspended, will now be reassessed.

I am requesting a complete waiver of all late fees/fines based upon faxing the required form on October 26, 2020, the deadline for said form and also a waiver of the reassessed fines for the forms 10g and 10p in 2018. This amounts to approximately Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) and I cannot afford to pay any amount of money towards fines. Also, there was no intention to miss the deadlines as my mother was gravely ill and died in 2018, and I was her primary caregiver. The circumstances causing the assessment of a fine from 2020 were beyond my control and the form was filed on time by fax, which was the only way I could have submitted the form on time.

Please waive any and all fines related to the 2020 filing and waive all reassessed fines for 2018.

Outlook is not allowing a read receipt. Would you please reply back to this email to confirm you have received it? Thanks in advance, and your time, courtesy and indulgence are greatly appreciated.
